

Atmosphere Lighting and Sound is committed to ensuring the health, safety and welfare of its employees, so far as is reasonably practicable. We also fully accept our responsibilities for other persons who may be affected by our activities. We will take steps to ensure that our statutory duties are met at all times.

Each employee will be given such information, instruction and training as is necessary to enable the safe performance of work activities.

It is the duty of the management to ensure that all processes and systems of work are designed to take account of health and safety and are properly supervised(so far is reasonably practicable)

Adequate facilities and arrangements will be maintained to enable employees to raise issues of health and safety.

Competent people will be appointed to assists us in meeting our statutory duties including, where appropriate, specialists from outside the organisation.

Every employee must cooperate with us to enable all statutory duties to be complied with. The successful implementation of this policy requires total commitment at all levels. Each individual has a legal obligation to take reasonable care for his or her own health and safety, and for the safety of other people who may be affected by his or her acts or omissions. Full details of the organisation and arrangements for health for health and safety are set out in our company policy.

This policy will be regularly monitored to ensure that the obligations are achieved. It will be reviewed and,if necessary, revised in the light of any future legislative or organisational changes.